

What We Believe about Poverty

Poverty is a complex problem.

It requires long-term and multi-faceted strategies that integrate agency and community resources.

Stabilization is a first step on the continuum toward self-sufficiency.

Community stakeholders, particularly those with a low-income, best know their community's needs.

Family and community successes are interconnected.

Identifying Services and Strategies

The relationship between services and outcomes can be simple (as in the case of one service to one outcome), or may be complex (as multiple services leading to multiple outcomes). Consider these circumstances.

One Service -> Multiple Outcomes

Multiple Services -> Single Outcome

Multiple Services -> Multiple Outcomes

One Service -> Single Outcome

We must also recognize one other circumstance, where the service is provided without follow up to track outcome. These are circumstances where the individuals receiving services may not be identified with demographic data, may not be considered to be a “client” of the agency, or where single or short term services produce a “service count” but where there is no expectation of a change in status.

Services for which outcomes are not expected (or where there is no follow up)

The National Community Action Network Theory of Change

Community Action Goals

Goal 1: Individuals and families with low incomes are stable and achieve economic security.

Goal 2: Communities where people with low incomes live are healthy and offer economic opportunity.

The Process Should

Challenge the underlying logic of the connections between activities/ programs and outcomes and the long term goals.

Admit where there are leaps of faith.

Acknowledge where there are gaps in your knowledge about what else you may need to find out.

Capture the complexity of the issue and the nature of change.

Be realistic about what can be accomplished with the resources at hand.

Take external context into account.

Provide clear measures of success.

Big Thinking

Which needs require community level strategies and/or partnerships?

What can you do to contribute to impacting those needs that are not the immediate mission of your agency?

*Limitations:

The focus of this asset map was to see all organizations that serve youth, directly or indirectly, which included some economic and emergency services, but maybe not all.

The organizations do not all break down number served below 125% poverty level, yet they all claim to serve that population

The outcomes measured are not always rigorous - hard to know what is working

There is no way to avoid double-counting because there is no system to track the services that people receive (no ID # and cross-system database)

The status of the client is the placement on the scale directly above the date which is gray shaded, bolded and dated. The 1st assessment is Feb 1. Subsequent assessments on May 1 and Aug 1 follow the same format.

DOUGLAS COUNTY COMMUNITY DATA PROJECT

Community Services Block Grant (CSBG)

Annual Report 101

WHAT?

The new CSBG Annual Report received clearance from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) on January 12, 2017. This clearance allows the Office of Community Services (OCS) to collect CSBG data from State grantees. This CSBG Annual Report upgrades and will replace the data collected in the CSBG-IS Survey.

Module 1

- State Administration

Module 3

- Community Level

Module 2

- CSBG Eligible Entity Expenditures, Capacity, and Resources

Module 4

- Individual and Family Level

WHY?

The CSBG Annual Report is a part of the greater CSBG Performance Management Framework and Results Oriented Management and Accountability (ROMA) Next Generation efforts. The CSBG Annual Report supports an enhanced focus on improved data collection, analysis, and continuous learning. Information will be used at all levels (National, State, and Local) to improve performance, track results from year to year and assure accountability for critical outcomes.

WHEN?

The OMB clearance of the CSBG Annual Report marks the start of the phase-in of the CSBG Annual Report and the phase-out of the CSBG-IS Survey. For FY16 and FY17, State Offices submit Module 1: State Administration to OCS through the On Line Data Collection (OLDC) System and local agency data is still submitted to NASCSP through the CSBG-IS Survey.

Data collection for all modules of the full CSBG Annual Report starts in FY18. This means agency data collection for Modules 2-4 will begin based on the State's selected CSBG Reporting Period, such as July 2017-June 2018, October 2017-September 2018 or January 2018-December 2018. The first complete submission of the CSBG Annual Report is due March 31, 2019.

To view a complete timeline, visit www.nascsp.org.

WHAT ELSE?

All levels of the CSBG Network will work together to implement the new reporting. In coordination with OCS, NASCSP convened a Data, Analysis, and Technical Assistance (DATA) Task Force to assist implementation of the CSBG Annual Report.

To get started, ensure you review the report and check out www.nascsp.org for the latest tools and resources, as well as who is on the DATA Task Force. Contact your State Office and/or State Association if you have questions about implementation in your State.
